American Intelligence.

BOSTON, June 3.

Intelligence from Egypt.

Yesterday the schooner Iris, captain Griffin arrived at the Quarantine road, in 52 days from Naples, and 35 from Gibraltar. Mr. Thomas Hill, jun. supercargo of the Iris, has obligingly furnished us with the following interesting papers.

ENGLISH ACCOUNT OF EGYPTIAN AFFAIRS.

GIBRALTAR, April 17.

Yesterday arrived from Aboukir, in 28 days, his majesty's hired armed brig Louisa, Trufcott, from whom we have the following information:

The British army under Sir Ralph Abercrombie, arrived at Aboukir Bay on the 2d March; but did not attempt to disembark, on account of tempestuous weather, until the 8th, when a landing was effected by 7000 men, under a heavy fire from artillery and small arms. The French made a vigorous opposition, advancing to the beach, and actually leveling the mulquets over the gunwales of the boats; but the British soldiers leaping on shore, attacked the enemy with the bayonet, made good their disembarkation and drove the French about two miles towards Alexandria, and into the Cattle of Aboukir, taking from them 8 pieces of cannon.

Our loss in killed and wounded this day is computed to amount to 4 or 500 men; and the enemy's about the same. Among the corps which made this first landing were the guards, 26th, 42d, 90th, and 92d regiments. Our troops were reinforced the same evening by 5000 more men who landed afterwards; and having established themselves in this position, they remained until the 13th March, when a general action took place, which terminated in the total route of the French, and four pieces of cannon being captured by the English, who lost about 1000 men in this affair. But by accounts from prisoners, the loss of the French was greater.

On the 14th the attack commenced upon the cattle of Aboukir; and on the 18th that garrison surrendered to the British forces; all the guns except two, having been dismounted by the fire from our batteries.

When the Louisa left Egypt, the British army was posted within two miles of Alexandria; and the French, supposed to be about 6000 strong, were entrenched on the heights of Pompey's pillar, said to command Alexandria. The British were occupied in disembarking their field train of battering cannon, two thirds of which were already on shore; and the attack upon the French camp was expected very soon to begin; when it was supposed there could be little doubt of the event being as glorious to Britain as the preceding actions had proved. The French had at first mistaken the 42d regiment in the Highland dress for Turks, and attacked them with their usual confidence; but were received with a gallantry and spirit which they did not expect and probably had not been accustomed to. The Highlanders received the French cavalry on their bayonets; in their turn made a brisk charge; checked and completely worsted that part of the French army opposed to them.

It is further reported that Murad Bey and his followers have attacked the French at Cairo, and prevented Menou from joining the forces at Alexandria, where all the rest of the French troops in the Delta had been concentrated. Certain accounts had arrived that the Grand Vizier, with his army had marched towards the Delta about the twentieth of February.

One of the lieutenants of his majesty's

Ship Swiftsure, writes as follows to his friends in Gibraltar, dated 17th March. "Our gallant army is only waiting for the heavy artillery to attack the enemy's height near Alexandria, which must immediately fall on our becoming masters of this height, as it entirely commands the town."

Sir John Warren fell in with and chased the squadron under Admiral Gantheaume, on the 21st of March, but lost sight of them in the night. They were seen on the 6th of April, by his Majesty's brig of war the Mutine, off the island of Sardinia, steering north-east. Two of the line of battle ships had lost there fore-masts.

[It may be worthy of remark to newsmongers that the late French account of their victory in Egypt on the 20th March was from Gen. Moncey, dated at Milan 2d of April, in which he says, the intelligence of the English defeat and embarkation was founded on advices from Naples and that the Iris, which arrived here yesterday, left Naples the 11th April—nine days after the date of Moncey's letter—and then no such accounts had been in circulation.]

New-York.

NEW-YORK, June 5.

The papers by the Argus inform us, that the new Emperor of Russia, on his accession to the throne, made public no less than eleven different ukases, each of which is represented to be important, viz. 1. The liberty of the prisoners of state; 2d. That of the English sailors; 3d. That of every one clothing himself according to his own fancy; 4th. That of entering and leaving his territories without obstruction; 5th. that of particular societies of pleasure and literature; 6th. the abolition of the ordinances relative to contraband; 7th. the re-establishing the tariff as it stood in 1782; 8th. the renunciation of the grand mallester of Malta; 9th. the re-establishment of the ancient regiment of guards; 10th. the re-establishment of the order of Wal-dimir; and 11th. all the regiments to resume their ancient names.

Under the date of Paris, 6th Floreal, (26th April) are the following Articles: "It is said that lord Whitworth is coming here in quality of negotiator, and that the first consul had required that the negotiations be carried on in London, but that the English government have preferred treating at Paris.

"They write from Calais that the correspondence between the two governments is in constant activity; and from this circumstance is nourished a hope of peace which we lay hold of with pleasure, & which we cannot lose without regret.

Yesterday afternoon, the remarkable fast sailing and fortunate ship Argus, captain Main, arrived here in 33 days, from Bourdeaux; the first ship which has performed her voyage from hence to France and back, since the renewal of our intercourse with that country.

By this arrival, we have received Paris papers to the 26th April inclusive, eight days later than our French accounts via London. Upon the whole, these papers furnish us with little news of importance.

A gentleman who came passenger in the Argus, informs us that the news respecting the defeat of Abercrombie, had fallen to the ground, and was disbelieved in France when he left Bourdeaux, which was on the 2d ult. Our belief of the inaccuracy of the late accounts from Egypt, by the Brutus, is strengthened, from the entire silence of the late Paris papers on the subject.

June 9.

A gentleman who has conferred with the hon. Mr. Sturgeons, since his arrival, informs us, that if the late Ministers in Great-Britain had continued in office three weeks longer, the points of controversy in our treaty with that country, would have been settled to the satisfaction of both parties.—That in consequence of the new order of things there, the negotiations have since remained in statu quo and that a new conference will have to be opened between the two countries.

Mr. King, our Minister at London, was making preparations to return, hourly expecting his recall.

Mr. Goreham, and the other American agent, were to return in the ensuing autumn, not having effected the object of their mission.

Lexington, July 6.

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE!

Saturday last being the anniversary of American Independence, it was celebrated by the citizens of this place, with the joy and festivity usual on that day.

At 12 o'clock the Infantry and Rifle Companies of Lexington paraded on the public square, attended by a numerous concourse of citizens—the line of procession was formed in the following order—Capt. Pollethwait's company of Infantry, in front, preceded by Gen. Scott and Gen. R. Todd—Gen. L. Todd and Gen. Russell—Col. Beatty and Lieut. Clinton; (the latter of the U. States, army.) Capt. Trotter's Rifle Company in the rear, and the Citizens in the center. A Liberty Cap, on which was a label with this inscription, was carried by one of the citizens, on the right of which was the standard of the Infantry company, and on the left that of the Rifle company; in this order they moved out to Mr. Maxwell's spring, where they fat down to a handsome dinner, prepared for the occasion; after which the Declaration of Independence was read, and the following toasts drank:

4th July, 1776.

1. The anniversary of our independence.
2. The President of the United States.
3. The Vice President of the United States.
4. The memory of General Washington.
5. The heroes who fell in defence of independence.
6. The State of Kentucky.
7. Success to agriculture and to the domestic manufactures of Kentucky.
8. Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations, intangling alliances with none.
9. Freedom of religion, freedom of the press, freedom of person, and trial by juries impartially selected.
10. The militia, our best reliance in peace, and for the first moments of war.
11. A zealous care of the right of election by the people.
12. The supremacy of the civil, over the military authority.
13. The diffusion of information, and the arraignment of all abuses at the bar of the public reason.
14. Absolute acquiescence in the decisions of the majority, the vital principles of republics.
15. Success to the Vine-yard association, a hearty welcome to the cultivators of the vine, and to all peaceable foreigners who introduce their industry and arts amongst us.
16. The fair of Kentucky.

After dinner the citizens returned to town in the order in which they moved out, reversed, where 16 rounds were fired in honor of the day. The evening concluded with an elegant Ball.

On Friday last arrived at this place, several families immediately from Switzerland; they are principally Vine dressers, and have brought with them several boxes of vines and choice fruit trees of that country, as well as the seeds, stones, &c. of those fruits; they left this place this morning for the Kentucky Vineyard.

Amongst those emigrants are 3 brothers and 3 sisters of Mr. John James Duff, the present manager of the Kentucky Vineyard, who have migrated to this place in consequence of the flattering accounts given by their brother, of the success of the Vine in Kentucky; they expect to be followed by at least 100 of their countrymen as soon as they can be informed of their arrival and friendly reception, &c.

BY YESTERDAY'S MAIL.

GEORGETOWN, June 12.

Last evening's mail brought us London accounts to the 28th of April, received at New-York, by the ship Brothers, in 34 days from London.

Lord St. Helens, accounted a most able negotiator, was to leave England immediately, as ambassador to Peterburgh.

The French frigate Africaine, of 44 guns, 400 troops and artificers, under the command of Gen. Desfourneaux, and a crew of 215 officers and seamen, with six brass field pieces, several thousand stand of arms, &c. on board, was captured on her way to Egypt, by the English ship Phœbe, capt. Baily.

ENGLAND & FRANCE.

London April 26.

A kind of correspondence between the British and French governments continues, but at present it promises but little. While two expeditions of such magnitude as those under the command of Sir Ralph Abercromby and Sir Hyde Parker, are pending, it is impossible that any terms should be agreed upon likely to form a permanent basis of negotiation.

TURKEY & FRANCE.

London, April 28.

The report of the alliance between France and the Ottoman court, seems fully confirmed. For some time past it is well known that the intrigues of France, and the influence of Russia, have eluded or intimidated the Turkish government from the alliance of this country. The death of Paul was expected to clear up all these difficulties, but the prospect is not now so flattering as it at first appeared.

GANTHEAUME.

London, April 28.

The following is related as the cause of the blockade of Gantheaume's squadron.—When capt. Dunn, of the Incendiary, was taken by Gantheaume, on going on board, he entered the Admiral's cabin with the greatest apparent alacrity, and delivering his sword, saying that he should not be his prisoner many hours, as Sir John Warren, of whose squadron his was the headmost ship, was close in pursuit, with a vastly superior force. This intelligence so alarmed the French admiral, that notwithstanding he had passed Toulon, he instantly tacked and entered that port, where he was soon blocked up by Sir John Warren's fleet, which, though reinforced by two ships, then amounted to but six of the line.

WASHINGTON, (City) June 10.

We understand that the President of the United States has vacated the legations to Lisbon and the Hague. The reasons, on which this step has been taken, are almost too obvious to require enumeration, and certainly so evident as to need but little amplification. By it, two important effects will be produced; the immediate saving of a considerable annual expenditure, and a supercession of some of those delicate diplomatic ties which united us to European powers. Economy dictates the former no less powerfully than sound policy recommends the latter. An annual expense of probably more than 20,000 dollars will be retrenched, without the least injuring our commercial relations with Portugal and the Batavian Republic; as we have no doubt but that in the room of the diplomatic agents, respectable consuls will be appointed, with powers strictly appropriate to the intercourse of trade. Nor can the least umbrage be taken at this procedure by the belligerent powers; as it equally affects both contending parties, Portugal being allied on one side, and the Batavian Republic on the other.

Upwards of 1000 passengers have arrived at New-York in different vessels from Great Britain in the course of eight or ten days.

It is said the late encroachment of emigration from Great Britain has attracted the attention of the British government.

London, April 24.

A letter from Vienna repeats the assertion that a French army is now on its march through the Austrian territory, destined to act against the empire of Turkey; and also states the formal acts of subjugation of the regency of Hanover, by which the electorate is placed under the immediate dominion of the king of Prussia.

As we are desirous that the original owners of those lands should know who has become the purchasers, and are willing to relinquish them to the proper claimants, on receiving an adequate compensation, we have thought proper to give notice that applications from any person interested, made before the first day of August next, will be attended to—after that time we will not consider ourselves bound to give any one a preference, but will proceed to do the best we can with our purchases. Letters addressed to either of the subscribers, in Lexington, postage paid will be answered.

THO. BODLEY, }

May 30th, 1801.

Montgomery County, to wit.

JESSE WOODRUF one of the commonwealth's justices of the peace for said county, to all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and Constables within the commonwealth of Kentucky.

Whereas complaint is made to me this day, on oath of James Ward, sheriff of said county, that ADAM, a negro slave, the property of Thomas Jameison, and JIM, a negro slave, the property of Moses Bledsoe, who was lately committed to the goal of said county of Montgomery, by warrant from James Turley, a justice of the peace for said county, on suspicion of felony, did on the night of the 24th instant forcibly escape out of and from the said goal, and is now going at large.

These are therefore in the name of the commonwealth of Kentucky, to require you and every of you, in your respective counties, cities, towns, and precincts, to make diligent search, by way of hue and cry for the said negroes, Adam and Jim, and them having found, to seize, and retake, and safely convey, or cause them to be conveyed to the goal of said county of Montgomery, there to be kept until they shall be discharged by due course of law. Given under my hand this 25th day of June, 1801.

Francois Langlois.

June 15th, 1801.

I HAVE Valuable HOUSES and LOTS in the town of Paris, several PLANTATIONS and TRACTS of LAND, with a valuable MILL, I will exchange for MILITARY LANDS of Good Quality, mostly north-west of the Ohio—or NEGROES and MERCHANDISE, with a small part in MONEY, will be taken. Two of the plantations are in Bourbon; one near Frankfort, well known to be equal to any in the state, to the size of it; one near Warlick, south of Kentucky river, several in Montgomery and Fleming counties; one in Madison county, annexed to one mill, with two miles of the Ohio river. This property I thought expedient a considerable part in Cash, Goods or Negroes. All the property above given very valuable in value, for money, or the situated property, at Cash value, to any person or persons that may want to purchase.

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

MASONIC SONG.

ADIEU! a heart-warm, fond adieu!
Dear Brothers of the MYSTIC TIE!
Ye favored, ENLIGHTENED few,
Companions of my social joy!
Tho' I to foreign lands must bid
Pursuing fortune's flimsy bar,
With melting heart, and brimful eye,
I'll mind you fill, tho' far awa.

Oh! have I met your social band,
And spent the cheerful, festive night;
Of honor'd with supreme command,
Prefiding over the SONS OF LIGHT:
And by that HAZARDOUS bright,
Which none but CRAFTSMEN ever saw!
Strong memory on my heart shall write
Those happy scenes when far awa!

May freedom, harmony, and love,
Unite you in the GRAND DESIGN,
Beneath th' Omnipotent Eye above,
The glorious ARCHITECT divine!
That you may keep th' EVERING LINE,
Still rising by the PLUMMET'S LAW,
Till you are bright completely fine,
Shall be my pray'r when far awa.

And you, farewell! whose merits claim,
Justly that HIGHEST BADGE to wear!
Heaven blest your honor'd, noble name,
To MASONRY and SCOTCH dear!
Al! a heart-warm, fond adieu!
When yearly ye assemble a,
One round, I ask it with a TEAR,
To sing, THE FRIEND, that's far awa.

And you, kind hearted Sisters, fair,
I sing farewell to all your charm;
Th' impression of your pleasing air,
With rapture oft my heart did warm:
Alas! the social winter's night
No more returns, while breath we draw,
Till SISTERS, BROTHERS, all unite
In that GRAND LODGE, that's far awa.

ANECDOTE.

The bans of matrimony were some time since published between Mr. Joseph Black, and Miss Sally White. The second publication of the bans was however objected to by the magistrate, Mr. Brown, who deflected largely on the danger of a Grey Hiss. Mr. Green satisfied his doubts, by assuring him that (however strange in theory) a Black and a White always produced a Brown. The chagrined magistrate withdrew his objections, and the marriage was solemnized.

FRESH SUPPLY.

MACBEAN & POYZER,
Have just received from Lee & Co's FAMILY and MEDICINE WARE-HOUSE, Baltimore, a Large Supply of the most Celebrated

MEDICINES:

Price 1 dollar per packet,
Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges.

Which have, within two years past, given relief to upwards of FIFTY THOUSAND PERSONS, of all ages, in various dangerous complaints, arising from worms and from humors or obstruction in the stomach and bowels.

A peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being fitted to every age and constitution; it contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate constitution; and the tender infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body—nor will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive; and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infect the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz. the Terebra or large round worm, the Ascarides, or small white worm, the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm, and lastly, the Tenuis, or tape worm, so called from its resemblance to a tape; this is often many yards long, and is full of joints—it is most hurtful, and most difficult to cure.

Among the symptoms attending worms, are, disagreeable breath, especially in the morning—bad and corrupted gums—itching in the nose and about the feet—convulsions and epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech—starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep—irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious—Painings with flimsy and fecid stools—Vomiting—Large and hard belly—Pains and sickness at the stomach—Pains in the head and thighs, with looseness of spirits—Slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—A dry cough—excessive thirst—Sometimes pain and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should immediately recourse to HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described. A child generally takes this medicine with eagerness, having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

We shall give occasionally, an account of cures, selected from a number of persons in this State.

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents, per bottle,
The Genuine Persian Lotion.
For Cleansing and Cleaning the FACE and SKIN.

Of all Scorbatic and other Eruptions—particularly Freckles, Pimples, Pits after the Small-Pox, Inflammatory Redness, Scurs, Pustules, Ring-Worms, Sun-Burns, Prickly Heat, Premature Wrinkles, &c. &c. Rendering the face delicately clear and soft, improving the complexion, restoring and preserving the bloom of youth.

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents, per bottle,
Church's Cough Drops,
For the cure of COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA'S & CONSUMPTIONS.

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents per bottle,
Infallible Ague & Fever Drops,
For the cure of Agues, remittent and intermittent Fevers.

These Drops are testify of their being cured by them, after the mark and every other medicine has proved ineffectual; and not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than one, and numbers not half a bottle.

These Drops are particularly recommended to the inhabitants of low marshy countries, where the worst sort of agues generally prevail, which unless early attended to and speedily removed, injure the constitution exceedingly, and bring on such violent, putrid fevers, and a variety of complaints, of the most dangerous and alarming nature. Many other medicines are daily offered to the public for the cure of this distemper, which, upon trial have been found either dangerous or useless. The bark is the usual remedy made use of, but being a very nauseous medicine, and seldom taken in sufficient quantity, it is of little service, and children, who are by it very often killed, are frequently lost for want of a more easy and pleasant remedy.

Price 75 cents per box,
The Sovereign Ointment for the Itch.

Which is warranted an infallible remedy at one application, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury, or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and is not accompanied with that tormenting smart, which attends the application of other remedies.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE
For the prevention and cure of Billious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended
(Price 1 dollar per box.)

Dr. Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

Which have been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern States of the United States, particularly in Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons in each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy, has under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so that they may be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its accumulation in the bowels, and around the appendix—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colic, which are often of fatal consequence—a dose never fails to remove a colic, if taken on its first appearance. They are also celebrated for removing habitual colic—flatulency at the stomach, and fevers head ache—and ought to be taken by all persons as a change of climate.

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents per bottle,
The Genuine Elixence,
and, 1 dollar per box,
The Genuine Extract, of Mustard.

For the Cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Palsy, Sprains, White Swelling, &c. and has performed more cures in the above complaints, than all the other medicines ever before made public.

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents per box,
Dr. Hamilton's Elixer,
A Sovereign Remedy for Colds, Obdurate Coughs, Asthma, and approaching Consumption, and is superior to any other medicine for the WHOOPING COUGH.

Price 2 dollars,
Indian Vegetable Specific,
For the Cure of a Certain Disease.

Price 2 dollars,
Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures, the constitution, the immoderate use of mercury; the distress peculiar to females at a certain period of life; bad lyings in, &c.

Price 50 cents,
The Damask Lip Salve,

An elegant and pleasant preparation for chapped and dry lips, and every blemish and inconvenience occasioned by Colds, Fevers, &c. speedily restoring the beautiful rosy color, and delicate texture to the lips.

Price 75 cents per box,
The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, absorbing all that acrimonious film and foulness, which suffered to accumulate never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Price 50 cents,
Dr. Hahn's True and Genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for Corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving pain.

Price 1 dollar per bottle,
Dr. Hahn's Genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident, speedily removing inflammations, defusions of rheum, discharges, itching, and films on the eyes, never failing to cure those maladies which frequently succeed the small-pox, measles, and fevers, and wonderfully strengthening a weak sight. Hundreds have experienced its excellent virtues, when nearly deprived of sight.

Price 75 cents,
Tooth-Ache Drops,
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Price 1 dollar,
The Anodyne Elixer,
For the cure of every kind of Head-Ache, &c. &c.

N. B. These medicines are sold as above, by appointment, and no where else in Kentucky.

Also may be had at above,
Hooper's Female Pills,
Anderson's Scott's do.
British Oil,
Godfrey's Cordial,
Dr. James's Fever Powder,
Turlington's Balm,
Daffy's Elixer, &c. &c. &c.
Lexington, 31 April.

NOTICE.
IS hereby given, that a petition will be laid before the assembly of Kentucky, at their ensuing session, for erecting a new county out of part of the counties of Mercer and Lincoln, agreeable to a former petition for that purpose, to include Danville, or for moving the county seat of justice from Harrodsburg to Danville, whichever the legislature in their wisdom may think most eligible, provided the consolidation of said counties should not take place, agreeable to a notice published in the Palladium five time past on that subject.
J. W. June 23d, 1801.

STRAYED
FROM my plantation on Cane run, eight miles from Lexington, the 16th of March, A DARK BAY FILLEY, two years old this spring, about fourteen hands high, stout made, not branded, long mane and tale, fair in her forehead, one side of which is a roun, fone white on her hind feet, a fair on her left buttock. Any person that will bring the said Filley to me, or give information, shall be handsomely rewarded by Walter Warfield.

TAKEN up by the subscriber, living on Eagle creek, two HORSES, (to wit) One an iron grey about fifteen and an half hands high, no brand, has a dark spot on his near flank, trots and paces, appears to be nine or ten years old, appraised to 240. The other a bay with a small star in his forehead, about fourteen hands high, appears to be eight or nine years old, a natural color; appraised to 150.
Wm. Jones.

N. B. The taker up informs that since the above strays were appraised, a dull mark something like 5 has been discovered on the near shoulder of the grey horse, and he thinks neither of the horses are as old as they were (by the appraisement) alleged to be.

TAKEN up by the subscriber, living in Garrard county, near the mouth of Dick river, a bay MARE, supposed to be three years old, about four feet six or seven inches high, no brand perceivable, long mane and tail, has a white spot on the right side of her belly, a blaze face, all her feet white nearly to her knees; appraised to thirty five dollars.
Wm. Hayer.

May 2d, 1801.

RAN-AWAY from John Pope, living in Shelby county, a negro man named DICK, but sometimes calls himself C. O. X., about five feet six or seven inches high, well made, stout and active, of a yellow complexion—had on a cotton linen coat, blue livery waistcoat, coarse linen shirt and overalls, a new high crowned hat, worth about 2 dollars, or 15 shillings.

The above negro was taken up by me yesterday, and made his escape at night from Lexington—he is a cunning artful fellow, and a great liar. If the above negro is taken up in this county, and secured so that I get him, a reward of FIVE DOLLARS will be paid out of the county, and TEN DOLLARS will be paid on his delivery to me.

Elizab. Gallion.
